

Christian
Men Together
for Scotland

Recommended reading

John Eldredge – Wild at Heart

If you can get over the “God Bless America” bits that sometimes sneak through, this book is full of wisdom and power. Understand your masculinity – warrior, adventurer, lover. Go deeper, and come out stronger. Go on a journey you won’t regret.

John Eldredge – The Way of the Wild Heart

The natural progression of Wild at Heart – looking at the stages of masculine growth from boy to old man. Powerful stuff, helps you understand yourself, your journey, and that of those about you. If you’re passionate about understanding men (yourself included) and how to relate, and get the best out of them – then this book is for you.

John Eldredge – Epic – Discover your part in God’s story

Are you hanging about behind the stage curtains, or have a bit-part in the King’s Story? Step-into the story, and become who you were created to be. Be His man, not your own.

Kris Vallotton – Supernatural Ways of Royalty

Begin to explore your God-Given right as an adopted son of the Living God, the King of Kings. If your Father is a King, then you are royalty – a Prince among men. Become who you are redeemed to be!

Tom Eisenman – The Accountable Man

Frustrated by shallow relationships, hungry to go deeper? Become an accountable man. Essential reading for men who meet together. Includes some excellent (and challenging) questions to get you started. As iron sharpens iron ...

Derek Prince – Husbands and Fathers

Be challenged in your two key roles. Discover the biblical truth of a man’s role as Prophet, Priest and Prince to his family and wider community.

Reviews by James Milner-Smith, CMT Board Member.

Do you have a review?

Read something interesting recently that other Christian Men would be encouraged by? Send a brief review to webmaster@christianmenttogether.com.

www.christianmenttogether.com